

WORLD BOOK DAY 2016

What is World Book Day?

World book day has been running for 19 years and is a celebration of authors, illustrators, books and reading. Over 100 countries take part. It encourages reading, illustration and having more interests in books.

Along with other schools, to celebrate this event, Bryn Hafren Comprehensive School got involved with World Book Day. Year seven pupils dressed up as their favourite book or character. Also, at lunch time the pupils headed to the Learning Resource Centre (LRC) to read books and to take part in a fancy dress competition.

Miss Noble, head of the LRC said “World Book Day is a great time to learn about new authors and books that people haven’t discovered yet. It is a great event for people to take part in.”

She also said that “it is such a big thing now; it’s on the news and in papers. It gives readers a chance to have certain role models and experience a new world by reading.”
